

Approved For Release 2003/10/29 : CIA-RDP80R01731R001900100004-1
DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20301

C-105-75/AH

10 December 1975

LtG Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Dick,

I thought you would be interested in seeing the attached good report on your friend, Bob Schuler.

After a tough start, it looks like our guys in Lisbon are doing what the Ambassador wants and likes!

DIA in general, and old ISH in particular, appreciate all your help - overt and covert! A hearty Well-Done to you, then, Dick, and again Merry Christmas.

Enclosure
Ltr from Amb Carlucci,
dtd Dec 3, 1975

W.D.
W. D. CRITTENBERGER, JR.
Major General, USA
Deputy Director for Attaches and Human Resources

Army and State Department review(s) completed.

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

December 3, 1975

Dear General Crittenberger:

Since you took a personal interest in the assignment of Lt. Colonel Bob Schuler as Army Attaché here, I thought it would be useful for me to share with you my judgment on his performance thus far.

Since his arrival here in June, Colonel Schuler has performed in outstanding fashion. He moved quickly to establish a broad network of extremely useful contacts in his area, and did so with maximum good sense and discretion. In the relatively short time that he has been here, he has become one of the key men on my staff. His judgment on all matters is uniformly sound and I have come to rely on it. Additionally, Colonel Schuler is one of the most selfless officers with whom I have had the pleasure of working: he willingly gives of his time and energies to work closely with other sections of the Embassy for the common good. He deserves the highest praise for the team spirit that animates his actions.

During the abortive leftist coup of last week Colonel Schuler performed in a superb fashion. He was invariably in the right spot at the right time. His contribution to the Embassy's coverage of this coup attempt could not have been better.

In sum, Colonel Schuler is doing an absolutely first-rate job, a job that is deserving of the

Major General Willis B. Crittenberger
Deputy Director for Attaches and Human Resources
United States Army
Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20301

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

-2-

highest commendation. I know that you will be as pleased to hear of Colonel Schuler's magnificent performance as I am in telling you of it.

Warmest best wishes,

Sincerely,

Frank C. Carlucci
Frank C. Carlucci
Ambassador